

fourth annual DKC BUS TRIP

Climb aboard for the Fourth Annual Downtown Knit Collective bus trip!

Join us on Saturday, November 7 as we travel by luxury motor coach on another Knitterly Adventure.

First stop: The Needle Emporium in Ancaster, Ontario. Come and see Julie's newly renovated store. Located in a historic house in Ancaster, the Needle Emporium offers gorgeous yarns and supplies for all budgets and skill levels. Here is your chance to fondle Lorna's Laces, Dream in Colour, Kauni, Blue Sky Alpacas, Spud and Chloe, Naturally, Rowan, Debbie Bliss, Noro and more. If this doesn't tempt you, how about a Namaste or Jordana Paige Knitting Bag or a Romi Shawl Pin. The Needle Emporium also has an amazing selection of knitting patterns.

To further entice you, Julie has offered us 15% off all regular priced yarns, books, needles and bags. And, a new yarn, Karamea from Naturally (75% Merino, 15% Alpaca and 10% Possum) will be discounted from $15.99 to $11.00 a ball (a 30% savings). We saw a beige cabled scarf knit in Karamea at the September DKC meeting. And it only gets better—Needle Emporium will be offering door prizes as well.

Lunch: This year's culinary experience will be at Belfountain Inn. Situated on the Credit River with breathtaking views of the Niagara Escarpment, Belfountain Inn is the winner of several recent awards. Owners Jim and Susan Wallace are preparing a lovely menu of: Butternut Squash Soup, Quiche (bacon, tomato, caramelized onion, cheddar), choice of Apple or Strawberry Rhubarb Pie, Coffee/ Tea

Second Stop: Camilla Valley Farm, a family-run business located on a working farm just north of Orangeville. They offer a wide range of products including Natural Cotton and Wool yarns, quality knitting needles and accessories, beautiful Peace Fleece and Lopi Sweater/Cardigan Kits, the complete Mission Falls line of wool and cotton kits, ball and skein winders, swifts, a wonderful collection of natural wood, antler and pewter buttons as well as Eucalan woolwash for caring for your handknit items. For the weaver, Camilla Valley Farm offers the full range of Leclerc Looms and accessories, natural fibres, tools and weaving accessories. Camilla Valley Farm will have special in-store discounts on many of their main knitting yarn lines as well as special introductory prices on some new yarn lines they are adding for the Fall.

Departure: 8:00 a.m. SHARP from the Finch Subway Station located at the north end of the Yonge Subway line. Free parking all day Saturday for those who are driving. We will be back by 5:00 p.m.

Cost: We are pleased to be able to offer a member discount again this year: $75 for DKC members, $80 for non-members. The price includes transportation and lunch. No refunds unless you can find a replacement.
